SOLDIERS PUNISHED.

Fifty-Six Debarred Forever From Re-enlisting on Account of Fraud.

(Special to the Daily Press.)
WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 22.—An order has been issued from the war department naming fifty-six soldiers recently discharged, who are debarred from re-entering the military service, on account of fraud.
These men belonged to the Third Cavalry and were stationed at Fort Assiniboine, Mont. The regiment was ordered to the Philippines, and in order that the short-service men might have an opportunity to go out to the islands for a full-term enlistment, these particular soldiers were discharged with the understanding that they should re-enlist for a full term.
Fifty-six of the short-term men, after discharged, failed to re-enlist; hence they are given a discharge without honor.

YOUNG GIRL MISSING

Woman Found in Suit Case Victim of Physician.

HER NAME IS STILL UNKNOWN

Police Learn That a Male and Female Clerk in Dental Office Have Disappeared—Only Real Clue to the Mysterious Murder Case.

(By Associated Press.)
BOSTON, MASS., Sept. 22.—The identity of the young woman, whose headless and dismembered body was found in a suit case, in Boston harbor at Winthrop last evening, has not been established.
The dead woman had been the victim of an illegal operation and death was due to peritonitis.

The Boston police today visited the apartments of a physician to learn if any of his patients were missing, but nothing was found that could implicate the physician.
Word was received from Fall River tonight that a young woman formerly employed in a dental office in that city had been missing three weeks. Since her disappearance a young man who was employed in the same office has been missing also. Relatives of the young woman will visit Boston tomorrow to view the body.

CLANSMAN MEETS WITH GREAT FAVOR

Dixon's Book as Dramatized is a Success and Draws a Crowd.

(By Associated Press.)
NORFOLK, VA., Sept. 22.—Two thousand people saw the first production of "The Clansman," written by Thomas Dixon, at the Academy of Music tonight.
The play deals with South Carolina during the reconstruction period and seethes with racial differences. It was enthusiastically received, but the intensity of the climaxes brought a mingling of hisses and applause in immense volumes. The whites applauding and the several hundred negroes in the gallery, hissing.
Mr. Dixon was called before the curtain for a speech and was given a tremendous ovation.
